News/Up-to-date examples:

www.bbcnews.co.uk

Geography Now – youtube. Short videos about the different countries of the world

Revision:

<https://timeforgeography.co.uk/> videos on some of our topics – called knowledge boosters, plus some grade boosters which look at short exam questions

<https://app.senecalearning.com/classroom/course/a0059cb2-0b2b-4905-b51c-075bd6f49132> this is an online resource that has some questions for general testing, be warned that we do not use all the located examples on here but the general concepts are fine and pupils should be able to apply knowledge to new locations.

Other sources:

<https://www.internetgeography.net/topics/> This website is aimed at AQA Geography but has some topics that we cover too. Use this with your course overview to find the topics that are relevant.

You tube channels:

Simple Geography - 3-5minute videos covering some of our ideas – please note not everything on here is related to our exam-board

Curious Geographer – interviews, book reviews and topic refreshers. Aimed at A-level primarily but some interesting content on here if you are looking for a broader picture.

Sharepoint – the Geography folder on Sharepoint is constantly being added to, from resources to revision ideas, past papers (Year 11 currently have access to this)

Magazines:

VERY USEFUL: Wide World Geography – available via the school library canvas pages- click on Geography at the top of the page (both GCSE and A-level resources are here) This contains useful short articles relating to a number of topics including study skills and exam technique, as well as Geographical content.

Geographical – available online
