Subject Overview:

This course is designed to develop a continued interest in English Literature. Students will be encouraged to read critically and independently, across centuries, genre, and gender. Candidates respond to these texts in analytical and creative ways and are assessed through coursework (20%) and examination (80%). A minimum of eight texts covering prose, poetry, and drama. The course encourages a student's development as a confident, independent, and reflective reader of a range of texts, learning to express responses effectively through speech and writing.

In 2018, Park High School was awarded a certificate for 'Outstanding A level Performance' – according to DfE data, we had the highest average student progress in this subject in England!
